

An Order for Morning Prayer in Passiontide

Preparation

The minister asks a blessing on the life of all God's holy people.

○ Lord, open our lips

All and our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Let your ways be known upon earth,

All your saving power among the nations.

The officiant may offer a prayer.

The Word of God

Psalmody

The officiant reads a psalm.

Scripture Reading

Readings from the Old Testament and the New Testament follow the psalm.

Responsory

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you;

All by your holy cross, you have redeemed the world.

God chose what is weak in the world to shame the strong.

All We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

We preach Christ crucified,
the power of God and the wisdom of God.

All By your holy cross, you have redeemed the world.

God forbid that I should glory,
save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

All We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you;
by your holy cross, you have redeemed the world.

Canticle

The canticle 'Saviour of the World' is said or sung

All Jesus, Saviour of the world, come to us in your mercy: •
we look to you to save and help us.

By your cross and your life laid down,
you set your people free: •
we look to you to save and help us.

When they were ready to perish, you saved your disciples: •
we look to you to come to our help.

In the greatness of your mercy, loose us from our chains, • forgive the sins of all your people.

Make yourself known as our Saviour and mighty deliverer; • save and help us that we may praise you.

Come now and dwell with us, Lord Christ Jesus: • hear our prayer and be with us always.

And when you come in your glory: •
make us to be one with you and to share the life of your kingdom.

Prayers

Intercessions and thanksgivings are to be offered, ending with a collect, after which all say the Lord's Prayer

The Collect

The Lord's Prayer

The Conclusion

May Christ, who bore our sins on the cross, set us free to serve him with joy.

All Amen.

Let us bless the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.
