who like me his praise should sing?
Alleluia, Alleluia,
praise the everlasting King.

well our feeble frame he knows;
in his hands he gently bears us,
rescues us from all our foes:
Alleluia, Alleluia,
widely as his mercy flows.

ye behold him face to face;
sun and moon, bow down before him,

THE WELCOME

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good;
love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour.

Romans 12.9,10

Beloved, we are come together in the presence of Almighty God and of the whole company of heaven to offer unto him through our Lord Jesus Christ our worship and praise and thanksgiving.

We gather in prayer for our King that both at his anointing and coronation, and always in his ministry among us, God may endue him richly with all wisdom and grace; and for ourselves and all his people, that we may be enabled to do all that our true service to God and to our Sovereign doth require.

We pray:

Blessed are you, Lord Jesus,
for as you were sent by the Father, so you send us.
Equip Charles our King and all your people with the gifts to fulfil our calling, that we may love as you loved, serve as you served,
and willingly follow wherever you lead.
Blessed be God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

All Blessed be God for ever.

THE FIRST LESSON

Read by Dr Anthony Freeling, Acting Vice-Chancellor, University of Cambridge

A reading from the first book of Kings

At Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, 'Ask what I should give you.' And Solomon said, 'You have shown great and steadfast love to your servant my father David, because he walked before you in faithfulness, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart towards you; and you have kept for him this great and steadfast love, and have given him a son to sit on his throne today. And now, O Lord my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David, although I am only a little child; I do not know how to go out or come in. And your servant is in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a great people, so numerous they cannot be numbered or counted. Give your servant therefore an understanding mind to govern your people, able to discern between good and evil; for who can govern this your great people?' It pleased the Lord that Solomon had asked this.

Here ends the first lesson.

1 Kings 3.5-10

Everyone REMAINS SEATED as the choir sings praise to God in the

TE DEUM

from Service in B-flat major – Sir Charles Villiers Stanford

Orchestrated for the Coronation of His Majesty King Edward VII, 9 August 1902

¹ We praise thee, O God : we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.

² All the earth doth worship thee : the Father everlasting.

³ To thee all Angels cry aloud :

the Heavens, and all the Powers therein.

⁴ To thee Cherubin and Seraphin : continually do cry,

⁵ Holy, Holy, Holy : Lord God of Sabaoth;

- ⁶ Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty : of thy glory.
- ⁷ The glorious company of the Apostles praise thee :
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets : praise thee.
- ⁸ The noble army of Martyrs : praise thee.
- ⁹ The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee :
The Father of an infinite Majesty,
- ¹⁰ Thine honourable, true and only Son :
Also the Holy Ghost : the Comforter.
- ¹¹ Thou art the King of Glory O Christ :
Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
- ¹² When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man :
thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.
- ¹³ When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death :
thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
- ¹⁴ Thou sittest at the right hand of God : in the glory of the Father.
- ¹⁵ We believe that thou shalt come : to be our Judge.
- ¹⁶ We therefore pray thee, help thy servants :
whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
- ¹⁷ Make them to be numbered with thy Saints :
in glory everlasting.
- ¹⁸ O Lord, save thy people and bless thine heritage :
Govern them : and lift them up for ever.
- ¹⁹ Day by day we magnify thee :
and we worship thy Name : ever world without end.
- ²⁰ Vouchsafe, O Lord : to keep us this day without sin.
- ²¹ O Lord, have mercy upon us : have mercy upon us.
- ²² O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us : as our trust is in thee.
- ²³ O Lord, in thee have I trusted : let me never be confounded.

THE SECOND LESSON

Read by Mr Jeremy Newsum, Deputy Lieutenant

A reading from the book of Revelation

I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. Its gates will never be shut by day—and there will be no night there. People will bring into it the glory and the honour of the nations. But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practises abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.

Here ends the second lesson.

Revelation 21.22-22.4

JUBILATE

The Old Hundredth Psalm – arr. Ralph Vaughan Williams, OM (1872-1958)

Composed for the Coronation of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, 2 June 1953

A fanfare is sounded before the first verse

1

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him service with fear, his praise forth tell,
Come ye before him, and rejoice.

2

The Lord, ye know, is God indeed, Without our aid he did us make;
We are his folk, he doth us feed
And for his sheep he doth us take.

3

O enter then his gates with praise, Approach with joy his courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless his name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

4

For why? the Lord our God is good:
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

A fanfare is sounded before the final verse

5

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom heaven and earth adore,
From men and from the angelhost
Be praise and glory evermore.

Amen

Composed for the Coronation of His Majesty King Edward VII, 9 August 1902

arr. for Trumpets and Organ Paul Walton & Benedict Todd

I was glad when they said unto me :

We will go into the house of the Lord.

Our feet shall stand in thy gates : O Jerusalem.

Jerusalem is built as a city : that is at unity in itself.

Vivat Regina Camilla!

Vivat Rex Carolus!

O pray for the peace of Jerusalem : they shall prosper that love thee.

Peace be within thy walls : and plenteousness within thy palaces.

CLOSING HYMN

All my hope on God is founded;
he doth still my trust renew.
Me through change and chance he guideth,
only good and only true.
God unknown,
he alone
calls my heart to be his own.

2

God's great goodness aye endureth, deep his wisdom, passing thought:
splendour, light, and life attend him,
beauty springeth out of naught.
Evermore
from his store
new-born worlds rise and adore.

3

Daily doth th' Almighty giver bounteous gifts on us bestow;
his desire our soul delighteth, pleasure leads us where we go.
Love doth stand
at his hand;
joy doth wait on his command.

4

Still from man to God eternal sacrifice of praise be done, high above all praises praising for the gift of Christ his Son.
Christ doth call
one and all:
ye who follow shall not fall.

tune MICHAEL (A&M 336), Herbert Howells, CH, CBE (1892-1983)
Robert Bridges, OM (1844-1930), based on J. Neander (1650-1680) you always.

All Amen

1

God save our gracious King!
Long live our noble King!
God save the King!
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King.

Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour,
Long may he reign.
May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause,
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the King.
