Anthem Make me a light – Philip Wilby (b.1949)

Make me a light to lighten the world,
Make me a star to lighten the darkness,
Make me so bright with your living word,
that I may shine with your love.

I hold a candle in my hands,
Light which I hold and which I hold true,
Light of the world shine out in the dark,
May it always remind me of You.

I hold a mirror in my hands,
There what I am and what I may do,
Shines back to me in your glorious light,
Make me a worthy reflection of You.

I hold a seed with in my hands,
Lend me your help to make it grow
Into the sweetest scented flower
That it may lovelier flowers sow.

Hymn

A&M 177 Thy kingdom come, O God (ST. CECILIA)

Organ Voluntary

Postlude – William Mathias (1934-1992)

Psalm 119 41 - 48

Let your faithful love come unto me, O Lord,

even your salvation, according to your promise.

Then shall I answer those who taunt
me,

for my trust is in your word.

O take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth,

for my hope is in your judgements.

So shall I always keep your law;

I shall keep it for ever and ever.

I will walk at liberty, because I study your commandments.

I will tell of your testimonies, even before kings,

and will not be ashamed.

47 My delight shall be in your
commandments,

which I have greatly loved.

48 My hands will I lift up to your commandments, which I love, and I will meditate on your statutes.
